

Terms & Conditions – We have reviewed the Terms and Conditions for Sale of Retail Products to Retailers. The new Terms and Conditions are overleaf.

Please ensure you familiarise yourself with the new terms before ordering, although we would particularly like to draw your attention to the changes to the following clauses:

4.1 – Includes a change to the delivery service we may use to despatch stamps.

4.5 – We have implemented a change allowing us to charge you for delivering palletised orders which have a purchase price of less than £75,000.

Please be aware that we may make further changes to the Terms and Conditions from time to time and when you place an order with us, that order will be subject to the latest version of the Terms and Conditions currently in place as set out on our website at royalmail.com/retailer

