

Royal Mail Stamps & Collectibles Terms & Conditions

These terms will apply to any contract between you and us for the sale of products to you. They explain our duties to you and your duties to us for each product we agree to provide to you.

Whenever you order a product from us you should carefully read and understand the terms applicable to that product. If you do not agree to the terms, you should not order that product.

1. Product Description

- 1.1 Although we try to display products accurately in our publications and on our website, products and packaging may vary slightly from those images. As many of our postage stamp products are torn by hand they will be subject to variability (for example in the perforation or specific cylinder or sheet position) but we do not believe that this affects the quality or authenticity of our products.
- 1.2 Products are subject to availability. We will inform you as soon as we can if a product is not available, without affecting any of your rights in these terms.
- 1.3 Magazine subscriptions are for 12 months unless stated otherwise. The first issue of a magazine subscription will be dispatched within two months of our receiving your order where the subscription is for a monthly or less frequent magazine.
- 1.4 Where you order a personalised product please double check your order carefully to check that all details are correct. It is up to you to make sure that the content you have provided to us for a personalised product is correct. By providing content you permit us (and our third party suppliers) to use, reproduce and modify the content solely for the purposes of providing the products to you.

2. How we will use your personal information

- 2.1 Our privacy policy explains what personal information we collect about you when you place an order. You can access the privacy policy by visiting royalmail.com/privacy-policy or contacting us.
- 2.2 When you order a product provided by a third party supplier we may supply your personal information, including your name, address and contact details, to the third party supplier so that they can fulfill your order.
- 2.3 We (but not any other third parties) may use your personal information to give you details about new products which we feel may be of interest to you. If you do not wish for us to use your personal information in this way please tell us when placing an order or at any time by contacting our customer services team.

3. Placing an Order

- 3.1 You place an order when you confirm the products you want to buy on the telephone; in writing or using an order form in one of our publications but a contract is not formed until the order is accepted by us. This happens when we confirm that we have received payment for the order or when we dispatch the order for delivery, whichever is the earliest. We may decline to accept an order, cancel an order or withdraw a product from sale at any time. If this happens we will refund any money you have paid to us for that order.
- 3.2 You can change your order at any time prior to despatch of your order by contacting us other than for personalised products which we may not be able to change after the order is accepted by us.

4. Price and Payment

- 4.1 The purchase price of products will be our stated prices at the time your order is accepted (as set out in our publications or on our website from time to time or confirmed to you on the telephone or in writing) and unless stated otherwise includes UK VAT (where applicable). The prices for products exclude delivery costs which will be added to the total amount due. All purchases will be in £ sterling.
- 4.2 Our prices may change at any time, but price changes will not affect orders which you have already placed (except where you have set up a regular order).
- 4.3 All mint stamps which are not part of another product are sold at face value unless we tell you otherwise when you order. We may choose not to accept large orders for mint stamps prior to a public tariff increase.
- 4.4 If we discover an error in the price of products you have ordered we will inform you as soon as possible and give you the option to either confirm your order at the correct price or cancel your order. If we are unable to contact you we will treat the order as cancelled. If we or you cancel your order for this reason and you have already paid, you will receive a full refund.
- 4.5 For orders by post, telephone or internet, we will take payment from you at the time you place your order. For account customers, you will be told about the time for payment in accordance with our account terms. We do not accept payment in cash.

5. International Customers

- 5.1 Where customs, legal or regulatory restrictions apply we may not be able to deliver to certain destinations outside of the UK.
- 5.2 Our products are sold on a delivery duty unpaid basis. You may have to pay import duty, taxes, fees or levies or a formal customs entry fee prior to or on delivery.
- 5.3 It will be your sole responsibility to comply with any export controls or sanctions rules applicable to goods supplied to you.

6. Delivery

- 6.1 We aim to deliver all products in the UK within 5 working days of receiving your order and may make delivery in installments. However, the time taken to deliver products will depend on availability, the type of product purchased and the delivery option(s) available. Where delivery is likely to take longer than 30 days we will notify you with the likely delivery time and you may cancel the order and receive a full refund.
- 6.2 Ownership of the products will transfer to you once they have been delivered to the address specified by you or to someone specified by you to take delivery of the products.
- 6.3 Where we are unable to deliver your order, we will leave a note at the delivery address. It is your responsibility to arrange for your order to be re-delivered or collected. If an undelivered order has not been claimed within 18 calendar days we will assume that you have returned the products and you will receive a refund when we have received the goods at our returns office.

- 7.8 Where there are persistent claims for replacement products from the same customer, we may choose to refund and not to issue a replacement order. We may also choose not to accept further orders from those customers in future.
- 7.9 We cannot accept returns of orders for periodicals or personalised products where there is no reason to return them, but this does not affect your right to return products that are damaged or of unsatisfactory quality.

As a consumer, you have legal rights in relation to products that are faulty or not as described. These legal rights are not affected by your rights in the Cancellation and Returns Process or anything else in these terms. Advice about your legal rights is available from your local Citizens Advice Bureau or Trading Standards office.
